To whom it may concern:

It is our pleasure to write a letter of recommendation for Caesar & Maud Becerra. We were first introduced to them in October of 2001 when they were the keynote speakers at the "Diabetes Connection 2001" in Everett, Washington. Since that time we have enjoyed following their trek over the Appalachian Trail through their newsletter.

They completed the Appalachian Trail in July. As they were making their way out to the west coast to embark on their next adventure in California, they were delayed for a couple of weeks in our area. Our family had planned a vacation in Whistler, Canada during that time. We felt very fortunate to have Caesar and Maud house sit for us while we were gone. When we returned home, everything was safe and sound and perhaps cleaner than when we left. Our neighbors were happy to report that Caesar and Maud watched over our home the entire time we were gone.

I'm sure you will be more than satisfied with Caesar and Maud if you hire them for an evening of dinner and conversation or as house sitters plus! Please feel free to call if you would like further information (425) 347-6865.

Sincerely,
